BABES IN THE WOODS-- 10,000 OF THEM

Living Like Animals In Forests—Starving, Freezing, Dying!—Tales of Horrors Come From Stricken Serbia—Worse Than Belgium.

BY HARRY PAYNE BURTON

New York, Nov. 16.—A new story of "Babes in the Woods" comes to tear the hearts of Americans as they prepare to give thanks for the blessings of peace.

Babes in the woods! Not two babes but, God help them—

TEN THOUSAND!

Ten thousand little children in stricken, overrun Serbia — starving, freezing, dying!

Ten thousand children, fatherless and motherless, wandering helpless through the forests, living like animals, eating that which even the dogs refuse.

It is the worst calamity of childhood in a century of world history.

The stories of horror are coming in thick and fast and the worst are sworn to by responsible Americans who are coming in from the stricken Balkan country.

When the war started Serbia had 4,500,000 citizens. Over 600,000 old men, young men and boys have been mobilized. There have already been 200,000 casualties in four years. Typhus, which last winter and spring
